

Social Justice Committee
Tri-County Unitarian Universalists

invites you to an informative presentation by the

ACLU

Saturday

February 16, 2019

4:30 p.m.

Always a trailblazer in the fight for civil liberties, the ACLU is now leading the effort to REFORM the criminal justice system.

- REFORM in every community in Florida,
- REFORM in the Florida legislature and,
- REFORM in the Florida courts.

FREE

Come early for social time and refreshments!

Donations or memberships to ACLU are appreciated. Checks payable to 'ACLU of Florida' or cash will be accepted.

Natasha Y. June is the Organizing Manager for ACLU, Florida. She has worked on a plethora of issues ranging from LGBT, immigration and privacy rights, criminal and juvenile justice, economic justice, reproduction and religion freedom, abolishing the death penalty, voting rights and rights restoration.

Joyce Hamilton Henry is the Regional Development Director for ALCU, Florida. She has worked with local, state, and national organizations to address civil liberties and civil rights issues including felon disenfranchisement, voting rights, LGBT rights, juvenile justice, criminal justice, racial justice and police practices.

For more information, contact:

Diane Carlin - carlin01@bellsouth.net 502-636-3648, or
Sue Michalson - suube2@gmail.com 516-581-4011